7 3 2

Introducing this investment property to the market with a full length front porch covered by a period bull nose veranda creating delightful street appeal. This well presented property consists of a solid five bedroom home, two bedroom granny flat, inground fibreglass pool and double carport.

Large glass panels straddle the front door, admitting light into the generous living room with polished cypress floorboards & ceiling fan. Adjoining the living area is a large kitchen with gas cooking facilities, plentiful cupboards and bench space with breakfast bar & room for a large fridge.

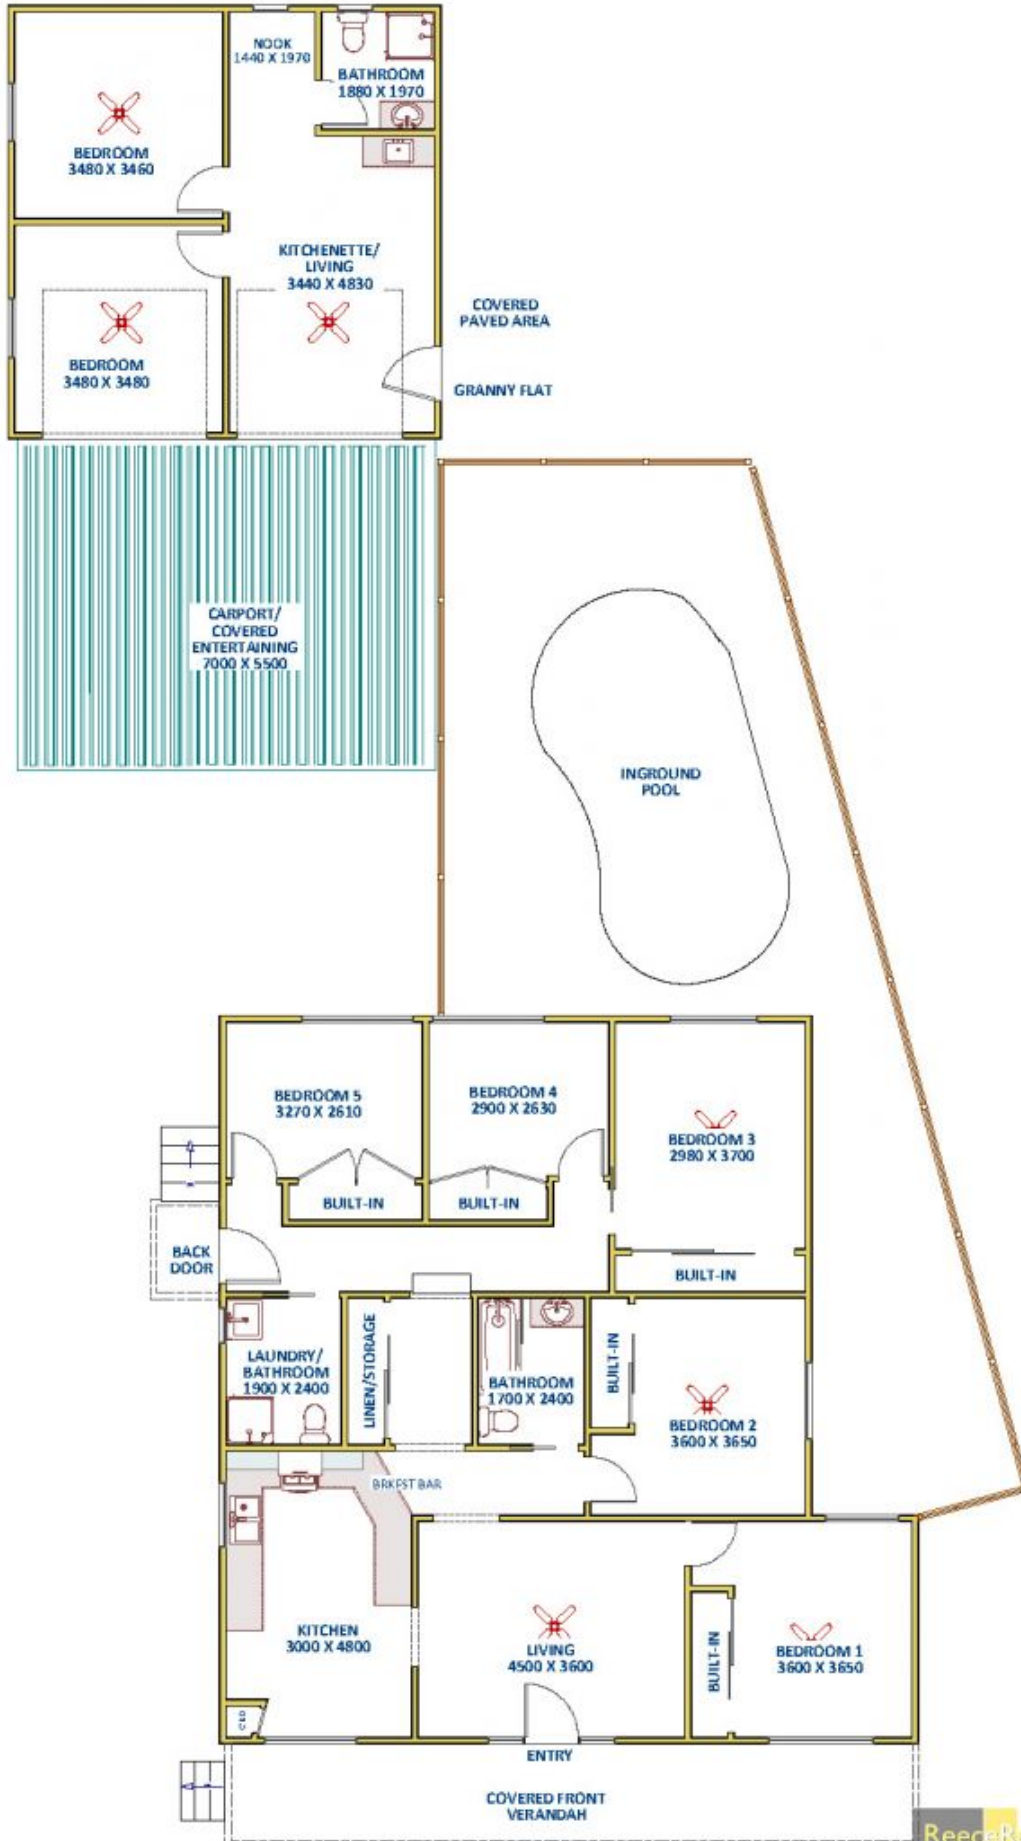

Both bathrooms in the main house have had a makeover with one including a full size bath and the second being
